What I like:

The thing I like the most is having fun with some friends. Just hang out with them and talk about all the world and his brother, maybe in an ice cream parlour.

Of course I love listening to music (who doesn't?). My favourite style of music is German rock like "Die Ärzte" or "Die Toten Hosen".

But sometimes I prefer a book. I love fantasy-books. I've read all parts of Harry Potter by J.K. Rowling, Twilight, New Moon, Eclipse and Breaking Dawn by Stephenie Meyer and the Eragon-Books by Christopher Paolini. Other things I like are: The sunset, candle light, a fire in the fireplace, moonlight, the smell of tasty food, chocolate, wine gums, purple in nearly every variation

What I dislike:

Midges (!!!), because unfortunately they like me...
